Quran – XXXI

I. Modern Prophet – A Chance Encounter

Think of modern Prophet – Sirohi – as a chancy man.

A Turkish dice-player with capitalism.

In fact a genius.

Praise be to Allah – a gem of a man.

II. Religion as Conservative – refuting Sirohian Islamic meditations in Jamia – the meaning of rejection, Sirohi jokes.

The formalism Sirohi develops in Jamia is rejected for being too devout.

It switches to Mohammad all through his Arab socialist Intifada.

It is conservative and simple, like a child, mother and father, who talk about God all day.

This is Mohammad – which is Universal Time maintained in boring simplicity.

Sirohi just gave it some lectures it did not listen to.

III. Sirohi – Epilogue.

Sirohi works on philosophy, symphony and Werkmeister Harmoniac with Zionists.

He is Hebrew Prophet,

Arabic Prophet.

And closest to Messianic religion.

But French, fuck off.
